BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. Saint Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter shall consist of a High Priest, King, Scribe, Treasurer, Secretary, Captain of the Host, Principal Sojourner, Royal Arch Captain, three Masters of the Vails, Chaplain, two Stewards, Organist, and Tyler, and as many members as the Chapter may admit.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 2. The regular convocations of the Chapter shall be on the first Wednesday of every month, at such hour as the High Priest shall direct; provided, however, that during the Summer months the convocations may be suspended by a vote of the Chapter. The High Priest may call special convocations whenever he shall deem it expedient.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 3. All the officers shall be elected annually, on the evening of the first Wednesday in October, by written or printed votes, except the Chaplain, Stewards, Organist, and Tyler, who shall be appointed by the High Priest. The officers shall be installed as soon as may be convenient, and shall retain their offices until their successors are installed.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

SEC. 4. The High Priest, King, and Scribe, for the time being, shall be a committee on finance to examine and act upon all bills and demands against the Chapter. They shall examine the accounts of the Treasurer and Secretary annually, and report thereon, as well as on all moneyed concerns of the Chapter. They shall also give a detailed statement of all the paraphernalia and working property of the Chapter at the annual meeting, and before the election of the officers.

DUTIES OF THE TREASURER.

SEC. 5. The Treasurer shall receive all money from the Secretary, and receipt therefor, and pay all bills which have been approved by one or more of the Committee on Finance, and all appropriations made by the Chapter, and invest, with the approval of the Committee on Finance, any surplus remaining in his hands not required for immediate use of the Chapter. His accounts shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the Committee on Finance, and he shall exhibit an account of all money concerns of the Chapter, to be laid before it at the annual convocation, and shall deliver to his successor in office all property of the Chapter in his hands immediately after his installation.

DUTIES OF THE SECRETARY.

Sec. 6. The Secretary shall keep a just and fair record of the proceedings of the Chapter, collect all money due from members, and pay it over to the Treasurer on or before the next regular convocation; shall issue notifications one day at least previous to each meeting, on which notifications he shall insert the names of all candidates proposed for the degrees or for membership; shall present the chairman of every committee with a copy of the vote by which he is appointed; shall also report the names of delinquents to the Standing Committee; and, as a compensation for his services, shall receive such sum as the Chapter may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. Any candidate exalted to the Royal Arch Degree in this Chapter may become a member thereof by signing the By-Laws and paying the usual fee — $5.00 — if done within six months after such exaltation; otherwise, the candidate must be repropounded and again balloted for.

Any Royal Arch Mason who has not been exalted in St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter, may be proposed for membership by a member at any convocation, but shall not be balloted for until the next regular convocation, nor until after a committee of investigation shall have reported on his character; nor then, unless his name shall have been borne upon the notice of the convocation when the ballot is to be taken. If admitted, such candidate shall pay the sum of Twenty Dollars, and sign the By-Laws within six months thereafter, to be entitled to the privileges of membership, otherwise the candidate must be repropounded and again balloted for.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

SEC. 2. Honorary Membership may be conferred upon any Royal Arch Mason, who, for particular services to this Chapter, or in the cause of Masonry elsewhere, shall be recommended for that purpose, to be effected by an election attended by the same formalities that are required in an election to ordinary membership. An election to honorary membership shall in no way restrict the rights and privileges of any member of this Chapter which he might otherwise have enjoyed.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 3. Life Members shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of full membership, and shall be exempt from assessment for the support of the Chapter.

Any member of the Chapter whose dues are settled shall, upon the payment of Twenty Dollars, be constituted a Life Member.

PERMANENT FUND.

SEC. 4. The Permanent Fund shall be styled "The Permanent Fund of St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter."

The fund shall consist of all moneys received for Life Membership, of all donations and bequests to the Chapter, and of such additions as shall from time to time be made by vote of the Chapter.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

SEC. 5. The Permanent Fund shall be held in the name of the High Priest and members of St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter, but shall be under the control and direction of a Board of Trustees, consisting of the High Priest, Treasurer, and three members who hold no other office in the Chapter, who shall be elected by ballot, and whose tenure of office shall be respectively as follows: The term of office of one Trustee shall expire at the next annual meeting, one in one year from said annual meeting, and one in two years from said annual meeting; and at each annual meeting of the Chapter there shall be elected one member of the Board for the term of three years. Each Trustee, however, shall hold his office until his successor is elected. The Board thus constituted shall be styled "The Trustees of St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter."

VACANCIES.

SEC. 6. Should a vacancy occur in the Board of Trustees, it shall be filled by an election by ballot at the next succeeding stated meeting, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, due notice of the election being borne upon the notifications.

DUTIES OF THE TRUSTEES.

SEC. 7. The Board of Trustees shall carefully and judiciously invest the Permanent Fund, in such manner as in their best judgment shall be safest and most productive, and shall select a suitable place of deposit for the securities and vouchers, where their absolute safety from fire and theft shall be insured.

The Board of Trustees shall keep a full and accurate record of the investments of the Permanent Fund, and at each annual meeting they shall submit to the Chapter in writing a correct statement of the Fund in detail, exhibiting its exact nature and condition. They shall semi-annually pay to the Treasurer, for the use of the Chapter, all incomes derived from the Fund so far as the same can be determined, provided the necessities of the Chapter so require; otherwise, the said income shall be added to, and constitute a part of, the Permanent Fund.

AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 8. This Article shall not be repealed or amended, unless the proposition to repeal or amend be made in writing at a stated meeting, borne upon the notifications for three succeeding stated meetings, and then adopted by four-fifths of all the members present.

DUES.

SEC. 9. Every member (except honorary, the Treasurer, Secretary, and Chaplain) shall pay two dollars annually. Provided, That any member who has held membership for twenty-five years and whose dues are settled, shall thereby become exempt from any future assessment.

DELINQUENCY.

SEC. 10. Every member (except as above) shall settle his account with the Secretary annually; but, should he neglect or refuse to do so, his name shall be reported to the Chapter for action, and his membership may be declared forfeited by a vote of the Chapter.

ARTICLE III.

SEC. I. Every candidate for the degrees shall be proposed by a member of the Chapter, shall sign the following application, and deposit the same and the sum of FIFTY DOLLARS with the Secretary at the time the proposition is made:—
